

International Congress on Obesity (ICO)
18-22 October 2022 / Melbourne, Australia

You can now submit an abstract and secure your seat for ICO 2022 taking place in Melbourne

ICO 2022 will be held at the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre with 5 days of scientific content, workshops, and training as well as a full exhibition. You can now submit an abstract on your latest obesity research to be featured as part of ICO 2022.

Click here to view the abstract topics and guidelines and join us in October to discover innovative new treatment and prevention strategies and gain insight from the world's leading obesity specialists.

Submit your abstract for ICO 2022

Abstract submission deadline: 13 April 2022, 23h59, CET

Register now and save with early bird rates

Early bird registration for ICO 2022 is now open. View the registration rates and take advantage of the savings on offer. Discounts are available for WOF members, early career researchers, students and nurses as well as delegates from low and lower-middle income countries.

Your registration includes access to all sessions and the exhibition, coffee and lunch breaks, and the Welcome Reception. Rates exclude applicable VAT. Please note you can select and book your hotel room during the registration process.

Secure your seat by completing your registration

Early bird registration deadline: 11 May 2022, 23h59, CET

ICO 2022 organising partners

Call for ICO 2022 symposia and workshops

The Programme Organising Committee welcomes suggestions for full symposia and workshops. Please liaise with your colleagues and submit a symposium or workshop suggestion under one of the programme tracks: Public Health and Policy, Clinical Science Research, or Basic Science Research.

Each symposium slot is 90 minutes long and the format can run to suit your topic. You should aim to cover a hot topic and speakers should come from a variety of countries. Click here for more details and submission guidelines.

Submit your symposium or workshop proposal

Proposal submission deadline: 13 April 2022, 23h59, CET

Notifications on acceptance or rejection will be sent out in early June 2022

Help spread the word to your network and colleagues

Know someone who might like to attend ICO 2022?
Help spread the word by making use of the easy-share links below:

Share

Tweet

Forward

ICO 2022 destination partners

Please see our privacy policy.